The Late Mrs. Mehitable McDonald

There died near Bloomfield on Jan. 31, 1920, Mrs. Mehitable McDonald, aged 95 years. Mehitable Johnson married Henry B. McDonald in the year 1855. She was the daughter of Bela Johnson and Rebecca Jackson, who were married in 1811. Bela Johnson, who was born in Hartford, Conn., first made his appearance in the village "near Hallowell Bridge" in 1809, as a journeyman blacksmith in quest of work. In 1811, he married Rebecca Jackson of Hallowell, and opened a blacksmith shop near the site of the old Mullett tannery, (Picton). In 1815 he, with his family, removed to what is known as the "Johnson homestead" on the West Lake road, which remained in the possession of the youngest son, the late Mr. Bela Johnson, until his death. Mrs. McDonald was one of a family of eleven, and the mother of four, who are well known in this county; two daughters, Mrs. Josiah Goodmurphy and Mrs. W. J. Gerow; her sons are, Aaron McDonald, Delaware, and Beverly McDonald, Picton. Her grandchildren are Lloyd and Carlyle Gerow, Dayton Goodmurphy, Malcolm and Beverly McDonald, Naomi McDonald and Mrs. Sidna Beverly Nourse; the last two named are daughters of Mr. Beverly McDonald, Picton.

Mrs. McDonald was a kindhearted and generous woman; her home was the home of many who tarried long beneath her roof, and open to the courteous hospitality that was a characteristic of the people of her early years, and never did it cease in the strenuous advancing years of her life. She was a broad-minded thinker, and a reader of the best of journals for many years, a strong Universalist in faith, with an unswerving trust in the Eternal Father of Love, and an earnest, active believer in the Brotherhood of man. On Feb. 2, 1920, she was laid to rest in the Universalist burial place, West Bloomfield, beloved and respected by many friends and relatives.

Archibald, 5-14-90 Before this date a grant of 700 ac.
had made to him beginning at a point 2 miles
eastward of Catawba River which interferes essentially with its plan of reservations for the Crown, though not so much as a grant that has been made to Mr. Cartwright lying within 1200 yds of Pt. Frederick.
